

WELLESLEY BLUE PRINT

CLASS NOMINATING CHAIR TOOLKIT

Dear Class Nominating Chair,

Thank you for the time, enthusiasm, hard work, patience, ideas, and sense of humor you contribute to this role in support of Wellesley. Your work to expand engagement with all alumnae is critical to our collective mission to support institutional priorities by connecting alumnae to the College and each other.

We are here to work with you to find potential solutions to any challenges you may face and to help you celebrate engagement of every kind.

This BLUEprint Toolkit is meant to serve as a launch pad and a reference point. You will find your role description and helpful tips, as well as links to resources that we will keep updated throughout the year. The toolkit gathers your resources into one starting point, but if you ever have a question, please always feel free to reach out to your key contact in the Alumnae Association. We are happy to help.

Thank you for all that you do for Wellesley. We look forward to working with you to connect alumnae to the College and each other.

Best regards,

Kathryn Harvey Mackintosh '03

Wellesley College Alumnae Association Mission

The mission of the Wellesley College Alumnae Association is to support the institutional priorities of Wellesley College by connecting alumnae to the College and to each other. The Association will serve as a lifelong resource to alumnae and will encourage alumnae to contribute to the continued excellence of the College.

Volunteer Tenets

All alumnae volunteers are guided by the Wellesley College Alumnae Association (WCAA) mission. We are always looking for alumnae interested in sharing their time, energy, and spirit as volunteers for Wellesley. The following tenets are designed to guide you in your volunteer role(s).

As a Wellesley volunteer, you agree to:

- Treat all alumnae and staff with respect and civility in person, in email, in print, and on social media.
- Commit to a role that suits your skills and capacity.
- Commit to being inclusive and address issues of diversity along numerous demographic lines (e.g., race, class, gender identity, sexual orientation, ethnicity, age, ability, religion, geography, etc.) in all facets of your volunteer work.
- Communicate regularly with alumnae volunteers and WCAA staff.
- Actively seek opportunities to engage new alumnae.
- Resolve any conflicts in a transparent and open manner.
- Acknowledge any potential conflicts of interest and recuse oneself when appropriate.
- Keep your contact information current at alum.wellesley.edu, including address, email, and phone number. As a volunteer, you must agree to be contacted by the WCAA or other alumnae via any of these channels.
- Recognize that your actions will reflect on and speak for not only you, but for other alumnae and the College.

Role Responsibilities

The class nominating chair plays a pivotal role in the class's election process. The nominating chair is appointed by the class president in consultation with the class executive board during the summer prior to the class meeting at Reunion.

- The nominating chair, together with the website and communications chairs, should issue two calls-to-action to all members of the class in the fall reminding them that class officer roles are for a term of 5 years, and the next slate of officers will be elected before Reunion and installed at the class meeting during Reunion. The WCAA can assist you with sending these calls to action through your class website.
- The calls-to-action are a good opportunity to contact alumnae without emails on file via regular mail and remind them that they have no email listed in their profile.
- The first call-to-action is for volunteers to serve on the nominating committee. These volunteers are ineligible to stand for any elected office during the upcoming class elections. The deadline to express interest in serving should be mid-September to give you enough time to fill the rest of the nominating committee. Your call-to-action email and announcement on the website can link to a Google Form where interested alumnae can submit a statement of interest. The nominating committee is a fairly intense, but time-limited way to become more involved with the class.
- Once you have the names of those alumnae willing to serve on the nominating committee, you need to build a committee of at least 3 members pursuant to your constitution. The nominating committee should represent the broad diversity of the alumnae body. The members of the nominating committee should be announced in the class newsletter and on the website no later than mid-October.
- Set times for the nominating committee to meet, in person or via phone, Skype, Google Hangout, etc.
- The second call-to-action is for volunteers to stand for election for the executive board roles of president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and Wellesley Fund representative. This request should go out to the entire class as soon as the nominating committee is created in mid-October. The message should remind classmates that class officer roles are for a term of 5 years and the next slate of officers will be elected before Reunion and installed at the class meeting during Reunion.

- For the Wellesley Fund Representative position, the class nominating chair should consult the class contact in the Development Office. The office can provide a list of potential nominees, as well as feedback on any alumnae who have come forward for election to the role. The Wellesley Fund representative will need to be approved by the Development Office in conjunction with the class nominating committee.
- You can send a Google Form with a call-to-action email with links to the role specific toolkits and also invite classmates to indicate any and all positions in which they would be interested. Most class constitutions allow for officer roles to be shared by two classmates as co-officers. Please include a request for a statement of interest.
- The deadline for the officer call-to-action should be December 1 so the nominating committee has time to reach out to each nominee and compose the slate of officers for ratification. The deadline to submit the slate to the WCAA is the end of January as the WCAA posts the slates with the Reunion registration materials February 1.
- Once the nomination deadline has passed, meet with the nominating committee and develop a process for how each of you will evaluate the candidacy of the nominees. It is recommended that the committee call each nominee to discuss their interest.
- Remember the nominating committee is crafting a slate of officers who they believe will work together for the good of the class and who represent the broad diversity of Wellesley alumnae.
- If there is not a nominee for a specific role, the nominating committee should engage in outreach to prospective officers.
- The slate should also be posted on the class website and social media channels.
- The slate should be emailed with the ballot (which can be a Google Form or a Word document they can download and complete) to all alumnae with emails and via hard copy to those alumnae who have not yet added an email to their profile.
- The ballot should be active for a set period of time that is long enough to allow for the mailing and return of hard copy ballots. Voting is confidential. Remember, the vote is whether or not to approve the slate of officers presented by the nominating committee.
- The nominating chair should track the voting progress.
- Together with the communications, newsletter, and website chair, the nominating chair should announce and encourage voting during the voting period.
- Once the voting period has ended, the nominating chair should verify the vote count and announce if the slate has been ratified.
- At the class meeting the nominating chair announces that the slate has been ratified and introduces the new class officers.

Communications and Social Media

As nominating chair, you should reach out to alumnae on a regular basis in the fall before Reunion and use every opportunity to encourage alums to sit on the nominating committee or stand for office on the class executive board. You should also work closely with the communications team to distribute the ballot to ratify the proposed slate of officers and encourage timely voting.

Newsletters/Emails/Social Media

- Together with the club communications leader, establish a timeline for regular communication highlighting the calls to action, announcing the proposed slate of officers, and encouraging voting to approve the slate.

WCAA Policies and Guidelines

WCAA List and Email Policies

The Wellesley College Alumnae Association (WCAA) may provide class, club, and shared identity group (SIG) leaders with access to lists of their members upon request. These lists contain information useful to volunteer leaders for planning events, managing communications, and calculating metrics. The information shared in these lists is sensitive data and is provided at the discretion of the WCAA.

The WCAA is unable to include alumnae email data in these lists for many varied reasons, including but not limited to the following:

- The Wellesley College Alumnae Association is a 501(c)3 Nonprofit organization and therefore subject to privacy restrictions including the EU's General Data Protection Regulation and domestic anti-spam laws. All email communications on behalf of the WCAA and its umbrella organizations are legally mandated to provide an option for recipients to unsubscribe or opt-out of receiving future emails. Private mass emails do not allow direct unsubscription from Wellesley mail and therefore are not permitted. Platforms such as Paperless Post are not tied to the Wellesley database and any unsubscribe requests will not be captured for future communications.
- All broadcast emails to classmates, club members or SIG members should be sent through the WCAA's official website newsletter function, which is connected to the College's alumnae database.
 - The College's records database tracks updates, email accounts that send back mail as undeliverable, and unsubscribe requests. Changes are continuously being made.
 - This ensures that communications are sent to the most current email addresses.
 - For help sending emails, please submit a request here.
 - Personal, one-on-one emails may be sent between alumnae.
- The WCAA offers online directories for all classes, clubs, and SIGs, as well as an all-alumnae general directory, which can be filtered by name, class, state, city, country, current or past employer, job title, or occupation. To access the general directory, please visit <https://www.alum.wellesley.edu/people.html>. To view your class, club, or SIG directory, please visit their respective websites.
 - Please note: while the online directories provide email addresses for many alumnae, compiling these addresses into a private list, or using them to send mass emails is strictly prohibited.

- Solicitation emails are not permitted under any circumstances, regardless of the number of recipients.
- The College and the WCAA aim to meet industry standards of our institutional peers, and we are committed to safeguarding alumnae information. You may view our full privacy policy here.

While broadcast emails are a useful means of communicating with classmates and club/SIG members, they are just one means of contact. Many groups have had great success by varying their communications between email, print mailings, the HIVE, social media, Facebook groups, and in-person events. If you need help reaching a particular individual or group, please reach out to your WCAA staff contact for assistance.

It is the responsibility of each alum to provide the College with any changes in contact information to ensure they are listed correctly. Alumnae can report these changes to recordupdates@wellesley.edu or call our toll-free record updates number at 1.800.339.5233. If you receive news about alumnae contact updates, please let us know.

Charitable Donations

Each Wellesley class/club is a 501(c)(3), a non-profit organization, whose mission is to connect Wellesley alumnae to the College and to each other. Each class/club operates under the umbrella of the Wellesley College Alumnae Association and as such must operate in a manner that upholds the shared mission of the class/club and the WCAA so that both the class/club and the WCAA may maintain their legal standing as non-profits.

While community service can be a large part of a class/club's engagement, direct financial support of another charity is not permitted. All money collected by the class/club must be utilized to further the mission of the class/club, the WCAA, and Wellesley. In other words, funds raised and held in the class/club's bank account are to be used to connect alumnae to each other, the class/club, the WCAA, and the College or may be donated to the class/club's scholarship fund, if applicable, or as a gift to the College. Direct financial support of another 501(c)(3) is outside the class/club's mission, and therefore must not occur.

If you have any questions about a class/club's financial responsibilities, please contact alumnae@wellesley.edu.

Non-Discrimination Policy

Each Wellesley class/club/SIG operates under the umbrella of the Wellesley College Alumnae Association and is closely associated with Wellesley College through the club/club/SIG's mission to connect Wellesley alumnae to the College and to each other. As such, each Wellesley class/club/SIG is expected to share Wellesley College's commitment to providing equal opportunity in employment and education to all employees, students, and applicants of Wellesley College. Wellesley College policy strictly prohibits discrimination or harassment on the basis of race, religion, color, sex/gender, age, ethnic or national origin or ancestry, veteran status, physical or mental disability, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, genetic information, veteran or military status, membership in Uniformed Services, or any category protected by applicable state and federal laws. Wellesley College is committed to making its programs and campus accessible and compliant with all applicable non-discrimination laws. Sexual harassment, including sexual violence, is a form of gender discrimination that is illegal and prohibited by College policy. Retaliation against any individual for making a complaint regarding this type of conduct or for participating in the investigation of such a complaint, is not tolerated.

If you have any questions about this non-discrimination policy, contact alumnae@wellesley.edu. You can also review the College's website for more information.
