

WELLESLEY BLUE PRINT

SIG MEMBERSHIP VICE PRESIDENT TOOLKIT

Dear SIG Membership Vice President,

Thank you for the time, enthusiasm, hard work, patience, ideas, and sense of humor you contribute to this role in support of Wellesley. Your work to expand engagement with all alumnae is critical to our collective mission to support institutional priorities by connecting alumnae to the College and each other.

We are here to work with you to find potential solutions to any challenges you may face and to help you celebrate engagement of every kind.

This BLUEprint Toolkit is meant to serve as a launch pad and a reference point. You will find your role description and helpful tips, as well as links to resources that we will keep updated throughout the year. The toolkit gathers your resources into one starting point, but if you ever have a question, please always feel free to reach out to your key contact in the Alumnae Association. We are happy to help.

On the 5th of each month, we will send you our “Top 5 on the 5th” e-blast. This monthly update contains important pieces of information for all volunteers, messages we encourage you to share with your constituents, and a “High Five” feature of an alumnae group doing something great. You should be proud of the work you do and we want to share your successes with other volunteers! Please send us your stories and tips to help inspire our collective work.

Thank you for all that you do for Wellesley. We look forward to working with you to connect alumnae to the College and each other.

Best regards,

Kathryn Harvey Mackintosh '03

Wellesley College Alumnae Association Mission

The mission of the Wellesley College Alumnae Association is to support the Institutional Priorities of Wellesley College by connecting alumnae to the College and to each other. The Association will serve as a lifelong resource to alumnae and will encourage alumnae to contribute to the continued excellence of the College.

Volunteer Tenets

All alumnae volunteers are guided by the Wellesley College Alumnae Association (WCAA) mission. We are always looking for alumnae interested in sharing their time, energy, and spirit as volunteers for Wellesley. The following tenets are designed to guide you in your volunteer role(s).

As a Wellesley volunteer, you agree to:

- Treat all alumnae and staff with respect and civility in person, in email, in print, and on social media.
- Commit to a role that suits your skills and capacity.
- Commit to being inclusive and address issues of diversity along numerous demographic lines (e.g., race, class, gender identity, sexual orientation, ethnicity, age, ability, religion, geography, etc.) in all facets of your volunteer work.
- Communicate regularly with alumnae volunteers and WCAA staff.
- Actively seek opportunities to engage new alumnae.
- Resolve any conflicts in a transparent and open manner.
- Acknowledge any potential conflicts of interest and recuse oneself when appropriate.
- Keep your contact information current at alum.wellesley.edu, including address, email, and phone number. As a volunteer, you must agree to be contacted by the WCAA or other alumnae via any of these channels.
- Recognize that your actions will reflect on and speak for not only you, but for other alumnae and the College.

Role Responsibilities

The SIG membership vice president is a key resource for alumnae interested in joining the SIG. The membership vice president serves as a member of the SIG board and collaborates extensively with the programming and communications positions as well as the regional representatives.

- Develop strategy to promote membership.
- Collaborate with clubs to strengthen connections and increase outreach to nonmembers.
- Maintain regular contact with WCAA on SIG goals.
- If your SIG has regional representatives, work with them to welcome newly-arrived alumnae to each region and communicate regional SIG and club events.

Attracting and Keeping Strong Membership

A membership survey to determine interests, desired frequency of meetings, types of programs, may help a SIG be better equipped to serve alumnae in various regions. Some SIGs have indicated that regional representatives or young alumnae representatives on the board have been effective in maintaining focus on the varying interests throughout the geographically dispersed group.

With the programming vice president plan programs that:

- Address current alumnae interests and concerns—careers, the arts, education, politics, parenting, health/wellness, community service, admissions/current student events.
- Attract varied constituencies: alumnae of all ages and at various life stages (working/non-working, etc.).
- Start and conclude at specified times and vary the times of events and programs.
- Include current and prospective Wellesley undergraduates and their parents, particularly on holidays and school breaks.
- Involve members (i.e. a prominent alum) with unusual careers or life stories.

- Parents of current students enjoy being included in SIG activities and learning more about the college where their daughters are spending significant years of their lives.
- We hope that you will make a special effort to invite parents to become involved in your SIG. Perhaps a letter could be included in your regional newsletters as one way of encouraging parents' to attend local events. Don't forget to follow up with a telephone call by one of your members.

Communications and Social Media

You have the power to connect—and build excitement about all the connections that are possible through the SIG. Let alumnae learn about upcoming events and share photos of past ones!

Newsletters/Emails

- Together with the communications leaders, establish a timeline for communications to the SIG via email or newsletter including deadlines for members to submit information.
- Send all SIG emails, newsletters, and invitations through the SIG website (alum.wellesley.edu). Training for communications volunteers is available online. If your email requires additional technological assistance, you may use this form to request an email blast, newsletter, labels, or list.
- The WCAA encourages email and e-newsletters for sustainability and suggests mailing only to alumnae with no email on file. If a print mailing is necessary, be sure to include a way for alumnae to update their information: “Update your contact information at alum.wellesley.edu or email recordupdates@wellesley.edu.”

Website

- Ensure your website has current content on it. Post a welcome letter, information about upcoming events, list your officers, add a banner photo, include photos to highlight events. If you and your website chair need assistance, request it here or view our video tutorials.

Social Media

- Please post the WCAA social media guidelines on the club website and any social media platform your club uses.
- Ensure there are moderators for each platform, and that they understand and adhere to the social media guidelines.

WCAA Policies and Guidelines

WCAA List and Email Policies

The Wellesley College Alumnae Association (WCAA) may provide class, club, and shared identity group (SIG) leaders with access to lists of their members upon request. These lists contain information useful to volunteer leaders for planning events, managing communications, and calculating metrics. The information shared in these lists is sensitive data and is provided at the discretion of the WCAA.

The WCAA is unable to include alumnae email data in these lists for many varied reasons, including but not limited to the following:

- The Wellesley College Alumnae Association is a 501(c)3 Nonprofit organization and therefore subject to privacy restrictions including the EU's General Data Protection Regulation and domestic anti-spam laws. All email communications on behalf of the WCAA and its umbrella organizations are legally mandated to provide an option for recipients to unsubscribe or opt-out of receiving future emails. Private mass emails do not allow direct unsubscription from Wellesley mail and therefore are not permitted. Platforms such as Paperless Post are not tied to the Wellesley database and any unsubscribe requests will not be captured for future communications.
- All broadcast emails to classmates, club members or SIG members should be sent through the WCAA's official website newsletter function, which is connected to the College's alumnae database.
 - The College's records database tracks updates, email accounts that send back mail as undeliverable, and unsubscribe requests. Changes are continuously being made.
 - This ensures that communications are sent to the most current email addresses.
 - For help sending emails, please submit a request here.
 - Personal, one-on-one emails may be sent between alumnae.
- The WCAA offers online directories for all classes, clubs, and SIGs, as well as an all-alumnae general directory, which can be filtered by name, class, state, city, country, current or past employer, job title, or occupation. To access the general directory, please visit <https://www.alum.wellesley.edu/people.html>. To view your class, club, or SIG directory, please visit their respective websites.
 - Please note: while the online directories provide email addresses for many alumnae, compiling these addresses into a private list, or using them to send mass emails is strictly prohibited.

- Solicitation emails are not permitted under any circumstances, regardless of the number of recipients.
- The College and the WCAA aim to meet industry standards of our institutional peers, and we are committed to safeguarding alumnae information. You may view our full privacy policy here.

While broadcast emails are a useful means of communicating with classmates and club/SIG members, they are just one means of contact. Many groups have had great success by varying their communications between email, print mailings, the HIVE, social media, Facebook groups, and in-person events. If you need help reaching a particular individual or group, please reach out to your WCAA staff contact for assistance.

It is the responsibility of each alum to provide the College with any changes in contact information to ensure they are listed correctly. Alumnae can report these changes to recordupdates@wellesley.edu or call our toll-free record updates number at 1.800.339.5233. If you receive news about alumnae contact updates, please let us know.

Charitable Donations

Each Wellesley class/club is a 501(c)(3), a non-profit organization, whose mission is to connect Wellesley alumnae to the College and to each other. Each class/club operates under the umbrella of the Wellesley College Alumnae Association and as such must operate in a manner that upholds the shared mission of the class/club and the WCAA so that both the class/club and the WCAA may maintain their legal standing as non-profits.

While community service can be a large part of a class/club's engagement, direct financial support of another charity is not permitted. All money collected by the class/club must be utilized to further the mission of the class/club, the WCAA, and Wellesley. In other words, funds raised and held in the class/club's bank account are to be used to connect alumnae to each other, the class/club, the WCAA, and the College or may be donated to the class/club's scholarship fund, if applicable, or as a gift to the College. Direct financial support of another 501(c)(3) is outside the class/club's mission, and therefore must not occur.

If you have any questions about a class/club's financial responsibilities, please contact alumnae@wellesley.edu.

Non-Discrimination Policy

Each Wellesley class/club/SIG operates under the umbrella of the Wellesley College Alumnae Association and is closely associated with Wellesley College through the club/club/SIG's mission to connect Wellesley alumnae to the College and to each other. As such, each Wellesley class/club/SIG is expected to share Wellesley College's commitment to providing equal opportunity in employment and education to all employees, students, and applicants of Wellesley College. Wellesley College policy strictly prohibits discrimination or harassment on the basis of race, religion, color, sex/gender, age, ethnic or national origin or ancestry, veteran status, physical or mental disability, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, genetic information, veteran or military status, membership in Uniformed Services, or any category protected by applicable state and federal laws. Wellesley College is committed to making its programs and campus accessible and compliant with all applicable non-discrimination laws. Sexual harassment, including sexual violence, is a form of gender discrimination that is illegal and prohibited by College policy. Retaliation against any individual for making a complaint regarding this type of conduct or for participating in the investigation of such a complaint, is not tolerated.

If you have any questions about this non-discrimination policy, contact alumnae@wellesley.edu. You can also review the College's website for more information.
