

Class Lecture Recording Agreement

Students, who due to a disability are unable to take or read notes, are granted approval to record class lectures under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 P.L. 93-112, amended P.L. 93-516. These notes are for personal study use only, and may not be shared or published. Before recording, this agreement must be signed by the student and instructor, and the instructor must notify the class that there may be a student recording the class meetings for the remainder of the semester.

Conditions for Permission to Record Class Meetings

The recordings of this class will only be used for personal studying.

The recordings of this class will not be shared with others.

No part of these recordings will be published online or shared on social media.

All recordings will be deleted/destroyed at the end of the semester.

The instructor will notify the class that someone may be recording all class meetings.

By signing this agreement form, I acknowledge that I have read and understood the conditions listed above, and I will honor the rights of the instructor and other students by abiding by them. Any violation of this agreement will be reported to the Honor Council.
